PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon motion by the government,

IT IS ORDERED that the United States' Motion for Protective Order is GRANTED, setting forth the following:

1. The United States will provide discovery materials on an on-going basis to defense counsel;

2. Defense counsel may possess but not copy (excluding the production of necessary working copies) the discovery materials, including sealed documents;
3. Defense counsel may show to, and discuss with the Defendant the discovery material, including sealed documents;
4. Defense counsel shall not provide original or copies of discovery materials directly to the Defendant;
5. Defense counsel shall not otherwise provide original or copies of the discovery material to any other person, including subsequently appointed or retained defense counsel, and shall not leave any discovery materials unsupervised with any person to include the client;
6. The United States and defense counsel may reference the existence and content of sealed discovery material in open and closed court proceedings;
7. The parties reserve the right to seek relief from the Protective Order should the need arise.

DATED this 8th day of January, 2016.

Honorable Salvador Mendoza, Jr.
United States District Judge
